The Start of Something New

14 0 1

Chapter 1 by Molly G

It was a day like any other. The sun had risen high in the sky, bringing the chirping of the birds and the honking of the early morning traffic. There was no indication that this chilly would be unusual. But looks can be deceiving...

Dragging myself out of bed I groan, partially because I have to leave it's warm bliss and partially because I have to venture out into the unknown (not exactly unknown- I was being dramatic). I had a hot shower, got changed and did my hair. I decided to skip breakfast- who needs breakfast anyway? And have a brunch on the way to do the weekly shop (okay, so not unknown). Let the day begin!

Getting into the car, turning up the music, I finally relax into the seat. The world whizzes past, as I drive through the city to the mall. I'm just outside, just managing to get a park. BOOM. The sky goes black- pretty unusual since it's mid-morning. More explosions. Electricity seems to be going out. I quickly get into the car and try to rev up the engine. Nothing. Suddenly fireworks explode across the sky.

"This is the start of something new" a deep, gravelly voice booms out
